Dear Praying Friend,

Your investment in the work of Christ is precious to Kim and me. Without a doubt, we know these past 20 years could not have been done had God not led you to believe in His call in our lives. Thank you for your prayers, assistance, and remembrances.

Your financial support allowed me to help teach future missionaries at Ambassador Baptist College. The head of their missions department had a heart attack, so the college asked me to fill in for a few weeks. I taught the class on campus, via Skype from our missions office, from several coffee shops, and my rental car. It was a joy to be able to do. Their professor returned to class after six weeks. I also met with over 300 pastors from around the US at a meeting in California. I preached in eight churches in order to help with their local and global outreach.

I also took part in our agency's Missionary Orientation School. We offered over 20 hours of instruction for our newest missionaries. Without you, I could not have taken part in the School. The Lord used this time to bind our hearts with these fellow laborers. Pictured below are the missionaries who came.

The Lord has been good to our family. Thank you for praying for our safety, health, and our work for Christ on your behalf.

Serving Him,

John O'Malley
