

The Bibeys

a Ministry of Helps

For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

1 Corinthians 9:19

Greetings to our Supporting Churches and Friends,

April 2008.

We are finally close to starting on deputation. Our display is finished and we are awaiting our new laptop computer that was so graciously donated to us from Pastor Charles Wyatt, from State Line Baptist Church. As soon as our presentation is ready we will start scheduling meetings.

Every day we are amazed at what God has done in our lives. I am not very patient. I am usually running around from one thing to the next. Sometimes in his will, sometimes not. But it has been amazing that when we are in his will, God is three steps ahead. I cannot keep up. Things fall into place and you see how He clears the path ahead. In 1 Timothy 1:15, Paul says he was chief of all sinners. I believe I am number two. Knowing that He does not need me, but allows us to serve is humbling. We want to serve. We chose the verse used last year at Family Fellowship Week as our theme verse. 1 Corinthians 9:19 (For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.) We want to serve to see souls saved.

In our busy Schedule (I am still working full time) we were able to finish a steeple for Haysi Community Baptist Church, in Haysi, Virginia. This little Church has grown from just a couple of families to a sister Church in a near by town.

We were also able to deliver a load of Church pews to a work in Arvon, Virginia a while back. The Church planter there is Nelson Tindal. The first Sunday the doors were opened 90 entered in, and 18 made professions of faith. The view is great up here on top of the mountain, but we know there are many valleys. Many lessons to be learned once deputation starts. We will follow the path He clears for us.

Our truck is progressing quickly now. Our trailer will get under way soon. We know that it is His timing not ours that matters. Everything will be ready when it is needed. We ask that you keep us in your prayers as we make the transition to deputation. Enough for now; we will try and update monthly.
