

February News from the Field-2005

Independent Baptist church-planting missionaries in the Basque region of Spain

These men (including our two oldest boys) were in our service at the Living Hope Baptist Church on the Sunday morning of January 16th. It is a daily prayer of ours to God that He would bring us more men and that they would become spiritually hungry Christians. This European culture is every bit as materialistic as the American one (or more?) and we go many months without finding a single man who shows genuine interest in the things of God. But we praise the Lord for His grace in changing some and giving them a hunger for truth.

Furlough Prayer Requests

As our furlough approaches we are beginning to think of "tiny" matters like flights, transportation, housing, and such. We appreciate your prayers for these as they are actually (obviously!) key decisions for which we need plenty of wisdom and provision from God. Thank you for praying with us for the following requests as furlough draws near:

- (1) Vehicle for furlough
- (2) Reasonable rates for six tickets
- (3) Wisdom in scheduling meetings
- (4) Publication, musical projects we need to do before we leave.
- (5) New missionary couples for the Basque region of Spain.
- (6) Wisdom for church and Aierdi ministries like Intensive institutes & evangelistic efforts.

If you want to stay up with the ministry by receiving regular pictures write us at:

Please contact us for a meeting if you would like for us to report in your church. You can call our mission office (704 730 1440) or write us by email (andy@aierdi.org) and we will be glad to set up a date to be with you.
