Preaching Jesus Christ in the Basque Region of Spain

August family photo

We took this picture the Sunday before David left for college. The last few weeks were packed with fun family activities as we prepared for saying goodbye to our oldest. Even though he is busy enjoying himself, thanks to email and Skype, we communicate regularly!

Vandals are international

The front glass of our rented church building was hit recently. It highlighted our need for a building of our own, with proper insurance. Our little congregation has already saved up $12,000 of the approx. $25,000 we want for a downpayment.

The incident also shows that kids growing up in an atheistic society have learned that the Bible is something to despise...

The 1001WORDS email photo mailing remains the best way to stay up-to-date with our ministry all the time! Write us at andy@aierdi.org and asked to be added.

Mimi & Martxeli

Martxeli is one of several ladies in our town who Mimi led to the Lord. However, as is often the case, there are many pressures from family and friends in this close society. She rarely comes to church, and admits to being afraid. Please pray for her to grow and become faithful.

Three generations

David had just finished preaching his first message at "Opa's" church. Three generations of preachers are part of God's reward to a Baptist itinerant preacher named Emil Bonikowsky who ministered in Siberia in the late 1800s.

Our daily prayer: "Dear Lord of the harvest, please send more labourers to this part of your field."
