

MATT and NIKKI BROWN

missionaries to CAMBODIA

February 4, 2013

Faithful Friends, Prayer Warriors, and Supporters:

January has been a time of preparation and planning. We are of course always working on our schedule, and the Lord is blessing those efforts. After many hours on the phone, close to half of our 2013 itinerary is planned. This spring promises to be very full, and we are still working on the summer and fall. It takes much work and perseverance to schedule even one meeting sometimes, but the Lord has shown His goodness in connecting us with the right churches at the right time. We are honored by the great churches that have partnered with us to reach the Cambodian people with the Gospel.

Time spent in preparation doesn't mean we didn't stay busy on the road in January! God allowed us to share in some wonderful conferences and meetings in both Virginia and North Carolina. We also got to spend some time in a couple of our supporting churches reporting to them about God's amazing blessings upon us.

Samuel Zwemer, a great missionary to the Middle East, said, "The history of missions is the history of answered prayer". We can never overestimate the power of this remarkable tool the Lord has given us. It truly is amazing that the Lord of all creation, the one true God, is willing to listen and act on our behalf when we simply ask in faith. It's easy to see prayer as a duty, something we ought to do, when really it is a limitless privilege. Thank you for praying for us - we do not take it for granted. We expect great things from the Lord.

In Christ,

Matt and Nikki Brown
