Nikki's Notes

June 7,
2015, Lord willing, we will be celebrating Joshua's 2nd birthday. I could never thank God enough for allowing me to mother my precious children. Joshua is a very intelligent boy with lots of energy. He loves to play with trucks, arrange his stuffed animals in a line, chase the chickens and cats, eat lots of rice, and ride on the moto. Many people ask if he speaks English or Khmer. While he has a good grasp of English (for a two year old), he has learned a few Khmer phrases. It's interesting when he uses both languages in the same sentence. He has been such a sweet big brother to Julie, always wanting to hug and kiss her. Before he was born, I specifically asked God to give us a son to love and raise for Him. By God's grace, we seek to do that. Prayers for health, safety, and spiritual guidance for my children are appreciated so much! Happy Birthday, Joshua!

Dear Fellowlaborers in Christ,

We pray this finds you well and busy in the Lord's work!

We are very thankful for a young girl named Navy who has been coming to church faithfully over the past several weeks. She is now bringing several other young people with her every week. Please pray that they will clearly understand the gospel, and that we will have opportunity to reach out to their families and others in their village.

Julie spends some time with our neighbor, Yiey (Grandma)

Later on this month, we plan on taking a trip back to the US. Weddings on both sides of our family have been planned within a few weeks of each other, and we are so thankful that the Lord has provided for us to be able to be a part of this important time for our families. Please pray that the Lord will watch over us on the long flights to and from America.

For His Name's Sake,

The Brown Family
