Pa-ow Update

The ministry in the town of Pa'ow continues to go well, and we have been committing a full day each week to evangelism and discipleship there. In past month, our team has been part of three funerals, which have been great opportunities to build relationships and become known in the community. We thank God for spiritual growth in the life of Srey Leak, our main contact there, and ask you to pray with us for some who have expressed interest in Jesus Christ: Daro, Kim, Sambo, Dara, Srey Map, and Ming Mon.

Prayer Requests

- Spiritual growth of believers
- Work in Pa-ow
- Special Christmas Service
- Salvation Bible Studies

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

In this holiday season, we truly have so much to thank our God for. We praise Him especially for the condescension of our Lord Jesus Christ in coming to this world for the sake of His love to all men. May He help us to understand and emulate this love in an even greater way.

Personally, we are thankful for the Lord's help and working in our own lives and ministry. He recently helped us through a bout of dengue fever, with some gracious assistance from our ministry partners here as well. Also recently, we have rejoiced to see a policeman named Tiavey and his family begin to attend church regularly, especially as he has made a profession of faith. We have been excited to see several new visitors to the church services as well.

Studying with Tiavey

We ask special prayer for a special evangelistic Christmas service that we are planning to have on December 17th. We are hoping to invite many friends and acquaintances who wouldn't normally come to church or study the Bible so that they can hear a clear presentation of the Gospel.

Please pray for a couple of folks with whom we are currently holding salvation Bible studies. Piew is the younger brother of a former member of the church who seems to have dealt with demonic oppression in the past. Chan-ten is a Cambodian lady who recently moved back here from Vietnam after a divorce. She seems to be very open at this time in her life, and has already visited the church once. Please pray that both of these people will understand and receive the Gospel.

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen." II Cor. 13:14

For His Name's Sake,
