Nikki's Notes

It's a boy!

Just this past week we found out the Lord has blessed us with another boy! With a due date in February, time is quickly approaching to meet this new one! We are so thankful for each blessing the Lord has entrusted us with and covet your prayers for good health and safety as we approach his birth.

Upon revealing this news to our children, we asked our little Julie if she were happy about it all. She replied "Yes, I am, Mommy, but I still want a sister." Haha - God is good!

Prayer Requests

- Safety and strength in travel
- Our ministry to churches
- Ministry planning
- Safe and healthy pregnancy

Faithful Friends, Family, and Supporters,

We are thankful for a very enjoyable and refreshing summer. Not only were we able to reconnect with family members that we hadn't seen for many years, but also with several dear church families as well! In August and September, we spent time with several supporting churches in MD, PA, GA and VA. It was such an encouragement to renew this special relationship with pastors and churches. The Lord is also bringing in many generous gifts to help with various needs will we have to get established in our new ministry location next year. Over the next couple months, we are scheduled to visit churches in VA, PA, DE and SC. Please pray for our continued safety and strength in travel, and that we can be a help to these churches during our time with them.

A highlight of our summer was the opportunity to assist in the Vacation Bible School at our home church. We were able to teach the 5th and 6th graders, and we thank God for two young men who trusted the Lord that week in our class! Our children also thoroughly enjoyed their first chance to be part of an American VBS. Another special treat was for Nikki and I to be able to teach an Introduction to Missions class at Crown College, our alma mater. There is still a great need for laborers on the mission field, and we are excited to encourage those who are preparing to serve the Lord!

Back in Cambodia, we were thankful to hear that the national elections went smoothly. The current government will remain in power, which is good news for us, since we expect we will still have freedom to proclaim the Gospel without government interference. Praise the Lord for a continued open door for His Word!
