Representing World Wide New Testament Baptist Missions
(Recruitment—Faith Promise Conferences—Missions Revivals)

Dear Praying Friends,

Moses wrote these words in Genesis 8:22. “While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.” Is there anyone that can get these words to the UN and our own weather “experts”!!! January and February were rough months for missions conferences as some were canceled and some rescheduled. THANK YOU for your faithful prayers and support during these “old-fashioned winter” months. We are beginning now to see the “buds” and “birds” of spring, and we are also seeing the mission conferences beginning to “bloom.”

We are glad that we had some time at home to catch up on much needed building and maintenance. The month of March started out with several meetings. The first of March, we were in a new church for us, Trinity Baptist Church near Princeton, NC. They are a wonderful group of believers. We had good fellowship. Then, March 8th, we attended a memorial service in Effingham, SC for the wife of a missionary friend that I had not seen in 54 years. He and his wife served in Brazil. They are a dear couple. She was a trooper in her battle with cancer to the very end. It was a wonderful tribute to a great lady. In the middle of March, we headed to Florida for a missions conference at Faith Baptist Church in Palm Bay. They have a great pastor, staff, and people. They love missions and missionaries. We concluded the month with doctor’s appointments and even a dentist visit (not my favorite medical service). Then, we closed the last weekend with a missions conference in LaGrange, NC at Community Baptist Church and had the privilege of seeing some missionaries that I had not seen for years. Sunday morning, I preached again for Trinity Baptist near Princeton, NC. Yes, they had me back! Maybe to see if I had improved any!! Then, we were returned to LaGrange for the evening service.

--Pray for the Eibens as they are hoping to leave for Pohnpei at the end of June.
Pray that Benjamin’s eyes will improve with his glasses.

--Pray for our safety and good health as we travel.

--Pray for Mrs. Ruth Arthurs as she awaits the arrival and training of the Eibens.

Yours in His Service,
