Acts 17:16: “Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.”

Dear Fellow Laborers:

Paul's waiting was not “vacation time.” It was a time of “observing & evaluating” the spiritual needs of Athens. In vs. 17, he went to “the Jew first” in the Synagogue, then to the “unwise” in the marketplace daily. In vs. 22, he went to the “supposedly wise” in the midst of Mars Hill. If he was on vacation, it was a “working vacation!” Thank you, Paul, for your faithful example!

JULY: I preached at my home church on a Wednesday night while my pastor & his wife were in Canada helping her Mom and Dad. Next, I spoke in a DVBS in Smithfield, NC. I always enjoy speaking to young folk! Then, I finished the month preaching at one of my supporting churches in Sumter, SC. What a gracious group of believers. They now have a new pastor, and the Lord is blessing that ministry.

AUGUST: I spoke at Island Road Baptist Church in a Sunday missions' service. Such a great church, great people, and great pastor. They love missions and missionaries. I closed out the month preaching again in Smithfield, NC. These Baptist folks love the Lord and His Word!

SEPTEMBER: I had no preaching engagements, but it was a good time to get refreshed at my home church and caught up on work at home. Norma was back in the hospital for a short stay with angina. In fact, she was in for three days in July also.

OCTOBER: This has been a busy, busy month. Thank the Lord. We began the month preaching for Pastor John Woodley in Ayden, NC. Then we went back to Smithfield, NC for their homecoming Sunday. I preached and they fed me well. Next, I preached by Skype to the big island of Hawaii, where Grace Baptist Church of Hilo is located. This was my fourth time to preach to them by Skype. They are a great group of folks and have a great pastor, who is mission minded and encourages his people to get involved in short-term trips. I finished out the month with another homecoming message and plenty of good southern cooking at Calvary Baptist Church in New Bern, NC!!
