

JOHN O'MALLEY

Fourth Quarter, 2012

Dear Pastor,

What a wonderful year of missionary service! I rejoice in the Lord's goodness to us because of your support, your prayers, and your concern for our family. Thank you!

The last quarter of 2012 provided opportunities to advance the cause of missions in churches, colleges, and one on one with potential missionaries. I spoke in Maine, Kansas, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Ohio, Indiana, and Virginia.

A highlight for me was teaching at the Biblical School of World Evangelism in Milford, OH. I spent a week teaching students about Contextualization in Missions. Contextualization in Missions is how to preach the Gospel in every culture without changing its message. It was rewarding to give a 20 hour lecture on the subject.

The Lord allowed me to take part in the ordination of a man I've known for 19 years. His Pastor, a dear friend of mine, died in early fall. In his Pastor's absence, he asked me to take part in his ordination. It was a blessing to see him enter the ministry. He will soon candidate for the Pastorate of this same church.

In December, the Lord opened the door of opportunity to visit the Solomon Islands in 2013. I will go with a college student and his Pastor to survey this field next spring. My expenses will be high for this trip. Yet, one church in Virginia already sent $1000.00 of the $4000.00 needed. World Wide New Testament Baptist Missions was begun with a passion for the Pacific Islands. It will be exciting to see what God does next year with this trip. Should you desire to help, please send it to WWNTBM and mark the gift for John O'Malley's Solomon Island trip.

Thank you to those who prayed this year for my mother. She improves daily since her triple bypass heart surgery. May this next year be filled with hope of His return and the redemption of many!

Sincerely yours,

John O'Malley
